

I keep a list of all food businesses I've tried, and a record of my experiences at each one. Since I enjoy food so much and many people constantly come to me for recommendations, I've decided to publish a list of my top restaurants twice a year (one at the end of June/beginning of July for mid-year, and a second at the end of December/beginning of January for end of year).

NKBC'S END OF 2018 TOP PLACES TO EAT
